Dated this the 19th day of October, 2007.

JUDGMENT

After having argued the matter for quite some time, learned counsel for the petitioner confines his submission that the petitioner is an orphanage committee and accordingly requested that it may be granted six instalments to pay off the outstandings.

2. Accordingly, while repelling the contentions on merits, this writ petition is disposed of directing that if the entire outstandings due under the impugned bills and orders are paid in six equal monthly instalments, payable on or before the last working day of every month, commencing from October, 2007, there shall be no negative action from the respondents' side. If the petitioner commits default in remitting any of the instalments as aforesaid, the benefit of this judgment will stand recalled automatically. In the meanwhile, the competent among the respondents will also consider any application of the petitioner for connection to a separate new building in accordance with the statutory contracts.

Writ petition is disposed of in the above terms.

Thottathil B.Radhakrishnan,
Judge.
